

The nudist lifestyle can take several forms. You can remove your clothes around the house, go to an acceptable clothes optional beach (or an out-of-the-way beach so as not to offend), attend a clothes optional resort or join a nudist club. One such club is:-

APOLLO NUDIST CLUB

Apollo is a family social club where people of a like mind can socialise and join in activities such as aerobics, quizzes, badminton, etc. They meet at a Health Club (NOR) with access to a spa, sauna, aerobics room and the gym. As well as the regular club meetings they organise many social activities including dances, river cruise, film nights, ten-pin bowling, bush walks, meals out, etc.

If you are concerned about joining in or if you want to find out more, come and talk to them on the beach (on Olympics day) – look for the flag, or ring the club or check out the website. Go on give it a try, it might change your life for the better! They welcome new families and couples.

Due to increasing products liability litigation, American beer Brewers have accepted the FDA's suggestion that the following warnings should appear on all beer containers:

The consumption of alcohol

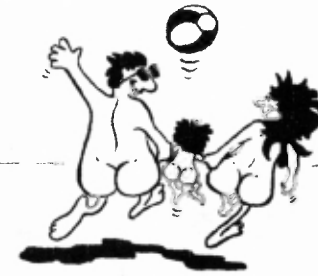

- ✓ may leave you wondering what the hell happened to your bra.
- ✓ may make you think you are whispering when you are not.
- ✓ may cause you to tell your friends over and over that you love them.

- ✓ may lead you to believe that ex-lovers are really dying for you to phone them at four in the morning.

TOILETS/WATER ON THE BEACH?

In last years newsletter I mentioned that the Nedlands City Council had suggested that it would be a good idea if nudists had toilet facilities and a water supply (ie. tank) on the beach. Their method was to raise a petition to that effect, which we did in March/April last year. This was duly presented to the Council and the Hon. Colin Barnett. His job, as Parliamentary member for the area, was to present the petition to State Parliament. Many phone calls ensued. Finally in early December, Mr. Barnett admitted his office had lost the petition and since the rules state that only the originals may be presented, we had a problem. At a meeting with Mr Barnett he assured me the petition, one way or another, would be presented at the next session in February.

I explained that the proposed idea of a water tank was impractical and a health risk and that a fresh water outlet was preferable and probably cheaper in the long run. I used the opportunity to explain the need for equal status with other beaches by legalising the clothes-optional nature of the beach.

The whole discussion was positive and friendly. I can't say I 'wait with bated breath'. I have learned over the years to breathe normally and just wait.

THE NEW LOOK SWANBOURNE BEACHFRONT

You can see as much as I know. The Surf Club has been expanded and upgraded, so they got what they wanted. I imagine the new kiosk/café will have to be up and running before the old one is demolished and also the top carpark will be expanded before the lower one is removed.

BARE FACTS

Australian Sun and Health magazine is revising Bare Facts, the inventory of free beaches around Australia. I am trying to bring WA's contribution up to date. If you have any experience/comments about our free beaches, please send your information to Bruce, c/o PO Box 35 Claremont 6010. Photos and especially maps and directions are most welcome.
